

Early guests at the Sadaquada

1896, Rear Admiral Ramsey of Washington DC was the first guest ever to register at the Sadaquada.
He was the guest of N. E. Devereux.

8/6/1903 Mr. Grimson, of London England, was the guest of H. P. Crouse.

8/25/1903 Count Otto Koenigmarck of Berlin, Germany was a guest of the Club.

1/2/1907 Attorney General Harry S. Patten notes that he shot a 43 and that there was no snow on the ground, but it was very muddy.

In the early 1900's there was music and dancing every Saturday night at the Sadaquada. Even during the Depression, the lively and fun-spirited atmosphere of the Club prevailed, as seen in the tampered guest registers of that time:

-May 28th, Mr. and Mrs. George Washington, who were referred by Alexander Hamilton.

-June 10th, Thomas Jefferson, who played golf as a guest of John Quincy Adams.

-Robert Montgomery, of Hollywood, made an appearance, as did Shirley Temple on September 30th.

No one knows for sure who the culprit was who penned in these quips, but another entry for the "Apple Sauce Eaters of America" looks remarkably like the handwriting of the long-deceased presidents, the aforementioned cinema giants, and member Francis Brennan.

Pictured: George E. Dunham, courtesy of Mid-York Library System.